Buy and Download e Books on Ramakrishna-Vivekananda-Sarada Devi, Yoga, Vedanta, Upanishads, Gita, Indian Culture, Self-Development from Ramakrishna Math, Chennai through Amazon Kindle, Apple and Android devices Vedanta is generally identified with the exposition of the system by Sri Sankaracharya and the followers of his tradition. This book attempts to treat in a brief compass the life and teachings of five other Vedantic Acharyas who differed from Sankara and interpreted Vedanta as essentially a system having God with infinite auspicious attributes whose grace alone can give salvation to the souls caught in the cycle of births and deaths. This book explains 12 manifestations of Lord Siva; each is supplemented by a color drawing/picture depicting the manifestation. All the pages are in color and it is a suitable introductory book on Lord Siva especially for Children. This book presents the glory of Shiva Purana through captivating stories from it.ISBN: Sri Ramakrishna, the God-man of Nineteenth Century India, is regarded as the Prophet of the Harmony of Religions. The Great Master's teachings, "As many faiths, so many paths," echoes the ancient words of Vedanta, "Truth is one, sages call It by different names" (Rig-Veda). Ramakrishna Order Centers all over the world are at the forefront of interfaith understanding and cooperation. Vedanta Centers of the Order teach the spiritual unity of humankind and harmony of religions and draw inspiration from the universal ideas of Vedanta. Sri Ramakrishna Paramahamsa was a humble devotee of Mother Kali. In the course of his talk, Keshab Chandra Sen said he had recently enacted a religious drama in which he took the chief part. A disciple of Keshab Chandra Sen said that Keshab played his part very well and everybody applauded him they were planning to enact another drama. He was childlike in all his talks, actions and ways of life. Keshab Chandra Sen jokingly asked Sri Ramakrishna if he would like to take part in it and if so what role. When we reduce ourselves to dust, we realise the glory of the Spirit within. Of Sri Ramakrishna. "M", as the author modestly styles himself, was peculiarly qualified for his task. To a reverent love for his master, to a deep and experiential knowledge of that master's teaching, he added a prodigious memory for the small happenings of each day and a happy gift for recording them in an interesting and realistic way. Ramakrishna Paramahamsa, the guru of Swami Vivekananda as we know him had more about his personality than just this. Born in a religious family in Calcutta, West Bengal, as a young man, he was an artist, a popular storyteller and an actor. Ramakrishna's father while on a pilgrimage had a vision of Lord Vishnu where he told him that he would be born into his family as a son. Interestingly. He inspired Alasinga Perumal of Chennai to start journals in English and encouraged his own brother-disciple Swami Trigunatitananda to start a journal in Bengali. Among the journals are still thriving after 100 years. The table gives the list of periodicals being published by the centres of the Ramakrishna Math and Mission along with other relevant details. Special mention must be made of the journals Prabuddha Bharata, Vedanta Kesari and Udbodhan. Prabuddha Bharata was started by Alasinga Perumal and Dr. Nanjunda Rao at the instance of Swami Vivekananda with B. Rajam Iyer as the editor. It was published from Chennai from July 1896 to June 1898. Then the journal was republished from Almora in August 1898 where it continued till March 1899 when the editorial office was shifted to the newly started Advaita Ashrama in Mayavati. Since April 1899 it has been published in India. The Vedanta Kesari was started in 1914 and is being published by the Ramakrishna Math, Chennai. Udbodhan, a journal in Bengali, was started in 1899 by Swami Trigunatitananda, a brother monk of Swami Vivekananda.
