In some of the matches that I play in, the enemy has like 2 power 10 brawlers while we don't. This applies in both ladder and power league. I really hate looking at my battle log and seeing myself lose to an unfair match. Please fix the matchmaking, especially in Power League where sometimes my team is against a maxed brawler team in silver league but I'm only in bronze 3 with noob teammates. The matchmaking is absurdly terrible. Please Fix it. Lastly I suggest a feature for Power League draft where you can communicate with your teammates with emotes or suggest Brawler. I really want to see Brawl Stars as a fun and fair game to play. I know you guys can't make Brawl Stars perfect but you can atleast make it better for the most part. I am writing to Supercell this feedback about the matchmaking in the game. Brawl stars is a really fun and addictive game but sometimes the opponents given to me do not correspond to the power level of my brawler. It is really a bummer and very unfair to the people who play without paying any gems to rush their account. I have been analyzing how the matchmaking works and I can conclude that the game bases the matchmaking on the amount of trophies each players has but it does however not programmed to monitor the power level of the players. There was one instance where I played as a power 8 and my allies were not star powers, meaning they have a brawler below power 10. It is very disappointing because the opponents addressed to my team were ALL power 10s. Of course, my team lost. This isn't the only instance where I always face an opponent with a power level of ten. Please reprogram the matchmaking to make the game more fair and fun. I suggest that the game should match make by power level and not ranking, however this may also affect the skills of the player and may resort to another unfair match. But in any way possible, please fix the game. - Written During the Corona Outbreak Brawl stars hyped up an update that ended up ruining the game!!! Until another update that addresses the new virus, toxic, op brawler that is Rosa, this game isn't even worth downloading. She kills all fun for people who are not Rosa with her op super if 80% damage reduction, good speed and dps as well as relatively quick recharge speed. I quit the game permanently because of her. Teaming is already a huge problem in brawl stars, but adding Rosa adds the problem of teaming as 3 or more rosas working together is unstoppable. She is the biggest mistake supercell has ever made in an update in my opinion. I'm boycotting brawl stars and I suggest doing the same unless the terror that has ruined the game for other players who don't use her gets a massive rework for her to be less infuriating but more fun. A major suggestion I would like to give would be to give her the lowest speed possible for a brawler and make her super something worse than it is like maybe a stronger poison damage per punch in the few seconds of her super, but give her higher dps so that the character doesn't get completely useless.
