Increase fluid intake: Another easiest, natural yet effective remedy that can help to improve the condition of sagging breasts is by increasing the fluid intake. You should drink at least 64oz of water regularly in order to keep your body hydrated and breasts in shape. Not drinking enough amount of water can dehydrate your skin, thus, allowing your skin to lose its elasticity. So, it is always good to drink water after an equal interval of time. 3. Wear a proper bra: Choosing the right type of bra is very important in order to keep your breasts in shape. Most of the experts say that you should wear a sports bra during a workout session, as your body undergoes a lot of changes during this period of time. Sports bra helps to provide good support to your breasts which prevents damage to ligaments, which in turn prevents breasts from sagging. Apart from this, choosing the right bra size is important to keep your breasts in shape. Read Rati Beauty Diet: The Right Way to Lose Weight 4. Ice massage: A quick remedy to regain firmness and elasticity of your skin is ice massage. Due to extremely cold temperature, ice massage helps the skin tissues to contract, which will keep your breasts firm and healthy.
