Job Description – Quality Assurance and Compliance Officer

Responsible to: Support Manager
Responsible for: N/A

It is the organisation's intention that this job description is seen as a guide to the major areas and duties for which the employee is accountable. However, the employee's obligations are based on duty and conscience, so the job description should be seen as a guide and not as a permanent, definite and exhaustive statement.

Job Purpose

The purpose of the role is to ensure the NLYMCA meets and exceeds the operational requirements of its stakeholders and internal customers through creating, maintaining, improving and assessing our performance monitoring systems. This will involve working alongside the management team to ensure cohesive and effective systems and procedures are employed.

Duties and Responsibilities

Quality Assurance

- Ensuring that all qualitative and quantitative data relating to NLYMCA Housing Society is pertinent, relevant and useful, and is collated and distributed in a timely manner
Attending regular management meetings and training events and engaging in all performance management systems, Supporting People submissions and all administration pertaining to this Ensuring that all administration for the NLYMCA meets and exceeds the operational requirements of the HCA and housing organisations
Working alongside the Housing Team to collate performance information and the production of all necessary reports
Ensuring all administrative tasks in relation to continuous improvement in all areas within Housing Society are kept in line with the requirements of the Quality Assessment Frameworks and HCA
Pioneering the development, implementation and improvement of Soft Outcomes monitoring tools to help create an innovative, intelligent and forward-thinking approach to measuring the progress of NLYMCA's service users in multiple aspects of their lives
Improving the efficiency of the organisation, its departments and its projects, and to suggest organisational improvements and adjustments based on this data

YMCA enables people to develop their full potential in mind, body and spirit. Inspired by, and faithful to, our tradition values, we create hope, resolve and emerging communities, where young people can truly belong, flourish and thrive.

When companies make these postings, they'll be specific regarding the location like, "job postings Chicago," or "job postings Los Angeles," for example. After all, whoever hires you is looking for someone who can eliminate some of their stress. You'll also find this information in a blog post if they choose to make updates in that way. Many virtual assistants are tasked with organizing documents and files, maintaining social media channels and handling billing and accounting issues. They'll post specific titles, like driver job postings, for example, as well as qualifications and the job requirements. Search Temporary Agencies! It isn't uncommon to find construction job listings at a temporary agency. You'll essentially be tasked with helping businesses target, engage with and attract consumers by using various online strategies. There's been a skills gap in the marketplace for years now, according to Digital Marketing Institute. These jobs are regularly updating, so it's critical that you're keeping your resume up-to-date and checking the sites often. Classified Websites/Employers are consistently looking for ways to not only reach as many prospective employees as possible but do so in a way that will save them money. Finally, full-stack developers work as both front- and back-end developers with extensive knowledge of software development, user experience, quality assurance and security. Virtual Assistant/Virtual assistant jobs vary widely in their tasks and responsibilities. However, that doesn't mean the position won't open up to something full-time in the future. Don't Forget Your Newspaper Your local newspaper is an excellent resource for finding construction jobs in your area. KOBU Agency/Unsplash The nature of the job depends on whom you work for. Some online marketers work as consultants who analyze a business' current online marketing plans to help improve. As COVID-19 has swept across the globe in 2020, many developers with suitable skills were given the option to continue on a remote-work basis. Experts suggest choosing the kind of designer you want to be and the role that best suits your skills. Then, talk to other designers, take a class and practice your craft. Figuring out which ones are authentic can be tough, but these virtual roles are all in high demand — and legitimate. DeveloperThere's huge demand for developers across the marketplace, with many businesses offering remote-work opportunities. Using things guidelines, you can learn how to find construction jobs.Search Through Online Job SitesWhen you search through online job sites, you'll find a wide variety of construction job postings. Indeed notes that many developer jobs are also the hardest to fill, with front-end, full-stack and mobile developer jobs making the top six in-demand roles. Other common tasks include answering and directing phone calls, keeping up with email communications, managing calendars or schedules and researching potential projects and clients.Medical TranscriptionistAs a medical transcriptionist, you take voice recordings made by healthcare professionals and turn them into written reports. If you don't have a portfolio, start taking on projects to create one.The Creative Exchange/Unsplash MORE FROM ASKMONEY.COM Back-end developers create the interactive elements of a website, including options to log in, like pictures and create accounts. Some of the most in-demand skills include search engine optimization strategy, website development, brand marketing, content strategy, digital project management and data analytics. That trend has continued over the past few years as increasing numbers of workers seek the flexibility of being able to choose their work environments — and as increasing numbers of companies see the cost-saving capabilities of having at least part of their workforces operating off-site. You can narrow your search by location like for job postings in Miami. Start by creating your resume on these websites. Front-end developers build websites by taking data and turning it into the site interfaces that users interact with. However, other workers out there may be looking for new jobs or may be interested in switching to virtual positions entirely. There is a broad range of jobs in the field from building homes to commercial construction. Others are hired to create and implement online marketing strategies for the long term.DesignerGraphic design, web design, user experience and user interface all tend to fall under the umbrella of design. You'll also need to be a self-starter with excellent organization skills. If you're good with your hands and basic tools, then you may be a good fit for the construction industry with some training. But there are several different directions to take a career as a developer. In doing so, your resume will be matched up with job postings for which you're qualified as well as those that are in your area. Campaign Creators/Unsplash For those with the skills needed to perform these jobs well — and the desire to potentially create a remote business — online marketing is a solid option. In fact, from 2005 to 2017, the number of people telecommuting increased by 159%, according to a study from FlexJobs. Experience working with programming languages like Python and Java is almost always a must. Even though you can't post your resume on classified websites, you can make direct contact with the employer with your information.Blogs or Company WebsitesMany companies will post their job listings on their websites in a "Careers" tab or link. Initially, they may be looking for someone temporary to fill a part-time or specific need. While you may be looking for something full-time, this is an excellent opportunity for you to get your foot in the door with the company. For example, if someone needs a new deck or would like a shed built, they may place an ad in the classifieds. Most employers require candidates to have completed a postsecondary educational course.CoWomen/Unsplash Online MarketingDigital marketers are in demand. It isn't impossible to break into this remote work opportunity with minimal experience, but the most lucrative and stable design jobs are often awarded to candidates with the experience and know-how to get the job done. MORE FROM QUESTIONSANSWERED.NET picjumbo.com/Pexels Working remotely has been gaining traction in the United States during the past few years. So, you'll find them using websites that will allow them to use free postings for jobs like Craigslist, for example. In addition to finding construction jobs with companies, you'll also find opportunities for individuals who are seeking contractors to work on smaller projects. At a minimum, virtual assistants need a computer and an internet connection. For example, mobile developers create the apps used on mobile devices. In most cases, you do need to have a good foundation in medical terminology and grammar. Some people work in doctors' offices and hospitals, but many medical transcriptionists can work from home. Danial RiCaRoS/Unsplash Every business has its own list of things it looks for in developers.
