Jul 13, 2021 Version 2.3.11 This update improves reinforced stability and problems. This application is excellent for composition, both for all types. I find it excellent! But missing a lot of things in order to make this application, perfect ... it's certain that I'd like to see in the garageband, for example: - see the percentage or time of each knob that we manipulate, to make handling more accurate. Like for example: the Libemic knob we have On keyboard instruments they must be specified in the course of time, to see how long the note can last after touching the key; The Cutoff knob are also on keyboard instruments should be specified as a percentage. I find it important to always have a union of this kind for all manipulation / editing - Creating an automation for different knob, for example: automation for the BPM (minute by minute); Automation for the pitch bend to defer instrument; etc.- create these DIFFERENT SHOOTING clean for instrument type and EBSOS (DELAY). For moments, is what I expect to see the application and hope that my go "UX will exaucted © because this application is excellent, again. If I find new ideas, I will not be able to write a second comment on this. good morning everyone! Whether you can have fun, see creding Nice little tricks without knowing anything about the music is a good thing, and the application can do it. But it's a lot more in there! ... For a musicista- instrumentalist more confirmed, once a well-integrated, which it will go to effectively replace significantly more co-core applications to deliver its models. it will not be necessary to go through the purchase of a specific audio interface (50 Â 120 a, Â ¬). you will appreciate its compatibility with other iPad software, including good drum -Machines, since Garage Band are a bit 'limited (still. ..) know that more than one Zicos that, once tried, Ã ¨ back from them a priori in this excellent pp. I love this app. And 'what I use all the time for my own compositions. Before when I finished editing the sound, the lyrics that I had previously noticed on the note, you do not need them moriser since I could leave the application while continuing to MA â ¢ â,¬â record. Since the new update, GarageBand is interrupted after 30 seconds after leaving to record texts. To my frustrating because © will bring me a lot more time record. It can be put to you that it's my iPhone that becomes outdated (7+), but waiting for me to afford to buy a new iPhone, able to see if we can remedy it Dier home. Thanks for the attention.
